Customized solution that fit your needs

Demanding customers require flexible solutions. Using the award winning Turbine intercom series as a basis, Zenitel together with their partners have been delivering a wide variety of custom stations for different applications.

Zenitel offers a wide range of OEM audio IP kits, which can be used for either building your own intercom that fits your customer needs or integrating audio into your own applications such as kiosks, stanchions, lifts, etc.

These IP kits utilize the latest technology to create unparalleled audio & video quality. Some of the many features include: HD voice & video quality, Open Duplex, Active Noise Cancellation, Automatic Volume Adjustment, MEMS microphone support, and a 10W Class D amplifier.

Our team of skilled and experienced partners can provide a comprehensive range of tailored intercom solutions from localization and custom indicators to custom form factor and specialized mounting screws.
